Madame, having a little school of them on this spot on the wall.

"What may be done at any time is done at no time." Do it at once!

SAPOLIO

will clean the house in a jiffy. It works like a charm. Try a cake of it.

A. R. LEONARD.

Looking out over the main roads of this country we see thousands of women wearing every such lives in household drudgery that might be materially lessened by the use of a few cakes of Sapolio. If an hour is saved each time a cake is used, if one less wrinkle gathers upon the face because the task is lightened, she must be a foolish woman who would hesitate to make the experiment, and he a churlish husband who would grudge the few cents which it costs. WATERFORD, May 29th.—There is no truth in the report that this town is at loggerheads with the Southern Pacific, or vice versa; nor that the town has engaged legal action to fight the railroad to the bitter end. It is true that the town has refused to conform to the grade of Front street, over which its track runs. The talk of "fighting the railroad" was the work of a few unreasonable persons who tried to play a "chicken" game. The railroad people will be ready to pay reasonable compensation to the injured parties, if any, and still so offer. The Town Trustees met last night and resolved that the town of San Buenaventura had been wronged by the railroad, and that no suit would be instituted, nor had it been contemplated. No sensible man has paid any attention to the matter.

Real estate was steadily advancing and improving, and going on well.

Most of the business and pleasure were rifle that the railroad would put up no doubt, but would make a "flag station" of the town.

Mr. Rose, Jr., has begun the erection of a $100,000 hotel. The railroad made this town, and the people universally recognize the fact.

THE HOT WAVE.

The Searching Northern Finds Way to Cool South Breezes.

[Copyright, 1887, by the California Associated Press.]

WATSONVILLE, May 29th.—The mother is doing some damage to wheat and barley, but not enough yet to cause alarm. A condition will shorten up the crop considerably. Fruit is not hurt, and the proposition is a useful crop.

FIGUEROA, May 29th.—Had no hot wind. The grain will make an average two-thirds crop.

NEVADA CITY, May 29th.—The mercury reached 106° in the shade to day.

St. HELENA, May 29th.—The heat is not so intense as yesterday, but the weather is cooling.

CHICO, May 29th.—The strong north wind of Friday did considerable damage to growing crops, amounting to about ten per cent. in Butte County. So far as learned the fruit has not been much affected.

OROVILLE, May 29th.—The hot day is the result of the heat of the sun, and is hotest yet.

LAUREL, May 29th.—A cool north wind began blowing this evening. It is feared that serious damage is done to the wheat now in the milk.

[Dispatches received on Saturday from northern and southern states reported two days of extremely hot weather, accompanied by a scorching wind from the north. The fear was generally expressed that grain and grapes would be seriously injured.]

MEXICO.

The Capital City Badly Shaken Up by an Earthquake.

[Copyright, 1887, by the California Associated Press.]

CHICO, May 29th.—The mercury was 100° at 10 o'clock this morning.

ST. HELENA, May 29th.—Last evening citizens and old friends of Mayor E. B. Pond and wife and Mr. McLean, of San Francisco, who are visiting Chico, the scenes of P. C. Lusk, paid a complimentary serenade to them when a grand time was had.

May Pond was quite happy to receive the greetings of so many old friends who were his neighbors twenty years ago.

Acquitted of Murder.

SALINAS, May 29th.—In the trial of Henry Godfrey for the killing of John McBride, alias John Madigan, in the southern part of the city, the jury, after being out for nearly six hours, failed to reach a verdict, six for acquittal and six for conviction.

The report in the San Francisco daily that there was something of a political nature mixed up in the trial as well as in the case of McBride, who is a rancher, is denied.

Judge Cross is complimented everywhere for his equitable ruling.

NEVADA CITY, May 29th.—The funeral of Philip Richards, who died from injuries received in a fall from a horse, took place yesterday.

April 23d took place to-day and was largely attended, being held under the auspices of Nevada Lodge F. and A. M., and Nevada Community Knights Templar. Deceased was a prominent member of the Knights of Pythias.

WILMINGTON, May 29th.—Judge Cross, the Superior Judge of Tulare county, in his recent contempt cases, has virtually solved the problem of irrigation. He held that a still greater a violent one accompanied by an earthquake, which nearly every one lasting as it did thirty-nine seconds. Houses swayed as if they were about to fall, and the ground was shaken with such violence that serious damage is done to the wheat now in the milk.

Condition of Crops in the Western Grain-Growing States.

CHICAGO, May 29th.—This week's Farmers' Review will say: "Our reports this week indicate that the railroads through the Western States have more or less broken down, and the shipping of grain and other products in the Western States is suspended in relation to the wheat crop."

The hot wave which visited most sections of the state Friday and Saturday, did considerable damage to grain and young grapes.

Earthquake shocks occurred yesterday in Mexico and Italy.

CLUB THE VICIOUS THING TO DEATH.

The attempt is made in certain quarters to create the impression that the RECORD-UNION is opposed to division of large grants and great land-holdings, or their taxation upon precisely the same plane with other lands of like value.

If there is any one topic more than another that this journal has all these years been earnest and persistent in debating affirmatively and urging reform of, it is the evil which is so strikingly exemplified by the wall, practically, of land grants purposely and cruelly withheld from subdivision, that are a barrier to community prosperity in many sections.

For that vicious and purposefully false charge, therefore, it remains only to give the lie flatly and in so many words.

When such influences say that the RECORD-UNION makes "most violent opposition to every effort put forth that would tend in the line of such consummation," i.e., the subdivision of large land grants, they lie knowing they lie for the very lust of lying, and because of their close relationship to "the father of lies."

However, any public influences that will be guilty of promulgating such a falsehood are not abashed by the lie being given but will continue to viciously reiterate the mendacious statement.

These confining walls of undivided land grants have been what they are these many years. They are not new; nor are the efforts to secure the subdivision of the lands. The progress of Sacramento has been made in the face of such obstacles, and probably nothing more significantly preaches of the splendid advantages of this city than the fact, that despite the great land holdings, the toll upon bridges and roads—now happily abated; the bad roads of winter that shut off a large part of the country from us; fire, flood and the assaults of business rivals, etc., Sacramento and county have gone steadily onward, gaining in independence, credit, local business, wide-reaching commerce and expanding trade importance.

There is not a county in the State to-day that is so inviting, has lands under better cultivation, raises as great a variety of crops or as good, has more prosperous producers, or better society than the county of Sacramento. When, therefore, it is said over and again, showing that the repetition echoes the desire of the utterer of the absurd exclamation, "there can be no boom in this country until the large land-holdings have been subdivided," the mere twaddle of a hobby is chattered. We can have a boom, we are having a boom with some great land holdings undivided;

we will have a far greater boom when they are cut up, and laid open to the newcomer to buy in small parcels.

That this subdivision may be speedily accomplished, all well-wishers of the city and county desire, and no legitimate efforts to that end should be neglected, no matter how often tried without success.

Once for all, whoever has the brazen effrontery, and unblushing mendacity to avow, as some conceivable influences have that this journal "works to deface every proposition" tending to the end all desire (to-wit: the opening up of large land-holdings to settlement for home seekers), simply lies by the cart and justifies the suspicion that it is done for the selfish purpose of diverting public attention from present progressive movements among the people.

The subdivision of grants and large land holdings must some time be accomplished, and the sooner the better. Whatever can be done now should be done. If examination shows that lands are not assessed sufficiently high, and develops that sworn officials have been guilty of wrong in the matter, they should be called to account, and those to whom is given the power of reviewing and correcting the assessments should be required to do their full duty in the premises.

Let us ascertain the exact facts, for not all large land-holdings are withheld from subdivision. For instance, it is known that the Cardwell tract of 5,000 acres, all under cultivation, has been some time in the market in the San Joaquin, and the owners are warm friends of subdivision and advocate small holdings. Mrs. McCauley is anxious to dispose of her several thousand acres, and is offering them in small lots, too, the Cox & Clarke tract, known as the San Juan grant, has been offered for sale, and is still in the market, and the owners

are warm friends of subdivision and advocate small holdings. Mrs. McCauley is

LOCAL INTELLIGENCE.

Attempted Suicide.

About 9:30 Saturday night four pistol shots were fired in the Capitol grounds, and officer Carroll, who hastened to ascertain the cause, found that E. C. Mumford, a man of gentlemanly appearance, about 40 years of age, had tried four times to hit himself with a shotgun revolver, but failed to inflict a wound. He was intoxicated with whisky, and was a poor shot, his poor shooting a charge of misfortune, in discharging firearms within the city limits, was entered against him. From statements made by him yesterday, it is gathered that he came to obtain employment at his trade—printing—became discouraged, drank freely on Saturday, and endeavored to put an end to his troubles. He said that he had no recollection of using the pistol, but the following note, found in his pocket, gives evidence of premeditation:

SACRAMENTO, Calif., July 23, 1887.
To the Compt. of the Exch.—A note is used for me to say that I am from the East, that I came in search of health, and gradually came to be not altogether alone in the world, but, for obvious reasons, my history must remain a secret.

I have a trunk of clothing somewhere in this State, but as I have determined as to whether I am to go to the East or not, I deem best to be silent as the information would avail but little on the coming of the day.

I regret to put this city to whatever expense is deemed fit, to place me under guard; sufficient to cover my expenses for a period of a number of years to the support of widows and orphans, as well as to the burial of the dead.

In conclusion, I would state that I take this instance of ending a career of 10 years which had been a life of vice, and every effort, but not altogether without mistakes, of my own free will and in full sense, inasmuch as a company of men.

I am free from any disease, and am of sound mind, to the best of my knowledge and belief.

It is my desire to have my remains have been kind to me, mostly in the East; and to those whom I have ever been kind and charitable, I would like to state that I always possessed their best wishes.

I don’t owe a dollar—not even a cent—to any soul on this continent. Respectfully, etc.,

Barwick’s Report Upon the Weather.

Friday night was the hottest night ever recorded in May by the Signal Service self-registering thermometer. The thermometer at 4 A.M. on Saturday stood at 74. Between that hour and sunrise the mercury dropped 2°, registering 72 as the lowest during Friday night. This is an unprecedented occurrence during the month of May.

The average temperature for the month of May is 70°, and the 10 years in 59° making that night 22° warmer than the average in May.

It was the hottest night for about 15 hours in Sacramento in ten years, and but seven that were hotter than last Friday night; the lowest temperature being 74° in June, 1883, and July, 1885.

In June, 1883, the hottest nights in succession, the lowest temperature falling to 70°, 72° and 72° respectively.

Each day from May 15th to 25th inclusive was last week, the mean daily temperature was 70°, making that the average temperature for those days, while the 26th was 8° warmer than the average; the 27th 8° warmer, and the 28th, Saturday, was the large sum of 18° warmer than the average temperature for that day.

The maximum temperature on Saturday was 86.3°, 17° warmer than the average temperature for that day. The highest and lowest temperature was 98° and 72° with brisk and hot northerly winds, weather being fair. San Francisco’s hottest was 97°, R. D. Bluff, 104°, Marysville, 99°; Los Angeles, 82° and San Diego, 68° on Saturday last. The mean daily temperature yesterday was 76.7°, which is 7.7° warmer than the average temperature for that day in nine years. The highest and lowest temperature was 93 and 62°, with fresh to brisk southerly winds and clear weather.

The Boom is Moving.

Every day brings additional evidences of the increase in values of real estate, the greater demand for building lots and improved property, and an augmented list of proposed investors in real estate for benefit from the rise. There are several large schemes for building and contentation, which have not been made public, and others are constantly coming to public notice. Among the latest movements for improving business property is that of T. M. Conner, who has recently come to be led by E. Lyon & Co. and Charles Robin, on the southeast corner of Seventh and J streets. This building will be remodeled this summer and made into an imposing structure. A new second story will be added, a fine plate glass front put in, and the building made first-class throughout. E. Lyon & Co. will remove about July 1st, to temporary quarters on the southwest corner of Eighth and J, and return to their present place of business as soon as the present structure is completed.

HOTEL IMPROVEMENTS.—On Saturday the contract to make extensive improvements upon the Capital Hotel, Blessing & Guthrie, proprietors, was let to Carle & Croy for $10,000. The frontage of the hotel on K street, with its two wings, will be remodeled as a cigar store. Work will be commenced upon the contract to-day. The sub-contracts are as follows: brickwork, George Murray; painting, C. H. Krebs & Co.; plumbing, C. H. Krebs & Co.; gas lighting, F. A. Stroh; oil lighting, J. F. Stroh; stonemasonry, Mann & Co. The office, restaurant, rooms, bar and main entrance will be entirely changed and a large billiard-room added.

Police Court.—In the Police Court Saturday Mrs. Katie Kay, previously convicted of disturbing the peace, was fined $25.... The case of J. S. Wheeler, for battery, was dismissed, the prosecuting witness not wishing to prosecute and filing a stipulation of satisfaction. The man, M. W., was tried on a charge of battery and acquitted.... Richard Conners was found not guilty of disturbing the peace.... Frank O’Keefe, arrested for having been drunk, was discharged. Richard Conners, for being a common drunkard, was sentenced to twenty-five days in the county jail.

THEY WILL NOT BE SHOT.—The citizens of Coloma, instead of meeting the Marshall Movement, with one hundred and forty rifles, backed by a man who knows how to use it, as was asserted they would by a man by the name of White, will tender a banquet and grand ovation to whom ever they visit that place this week.... The law enforcement committee to make the necessary arrangements, and the Commissioners will be entertained with that generous hospitality for which Coloma has ever been famous.

CINQUE OPERA HOUSE.—Chas. H. Hoyt’s satire on the men and women of to-day, entitled “A Rag Baby,” will be presented for one night only at the Cinque Opera House next Thursday evening, with Frank Daniels as the author, and the author of the play, W. H. Young, as the manager. The play has been given in this city heretofore, and its very amusing representations of the girl of the period, the tramps, the policemen, the schoolma’am, school girl, “Venus,” etc., made it a great success.

CITY TREASURY.—The following were the receipts for the week ending Saturday, May 28th: A. J. Wilson, cemetery dues, $37.50; Kidder, hardware, $127.50; H. H. M. and wife, $28.00; L. L. Johnson, Police Court dues, $8.00; George A. Putnam, city taxes, $4,417.45; George A. Putnam, city licenses, $216. Total receipts, $6,348.70; total disbursements, $4,432.22; amount in treasury, $7,234.29.

No piano but the “Mathushek” has the piano pins bushed into a solid iron frame. Silver Medal at Mechanics Fair.

SUMMER SILKS. at 25 cents a yard, at E. Lyon & Co.’s, No. 700 J street.
